Provident Healthcare Partners Advises Heart 'n Home Hospice in its Acquisition by LHC Group

Wednesday 07 July 2021

US-based healthcare investment banking firm Provident Healthcare Partners advised Heart 'n Home Hospice in its sale to LHC Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: LHCG), the firm said.

Heart 'n Home Hospice is a provider of hospice care in Oregon and Idaho, with 10 locations across the two states.

This acquisition represents a platform entry into hospice care in the state of Oregon for LHC Group, will expand its existing footprint in Idaho, while also aligning with the company's co-location strategy to provide multiple in-home healthcare services in certain markets.

McDermott Will and Emery acted as legal counsel to Heart 'n Home Hospice. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Heart 'n Home Hospice, founded in 2004, is in hospice care services across Oregon and Idaho.

Headquartered in Fruitland, Idaho, HnH affirms life by providing emotional, physical, and spiritual support to its patients and to those who love and care for them.

LHC Group, Inc. is a national provider of in-home healthcare services and innovations for communities around the nation, offering quality, value-based healthcare to patients primarily within the comfort and privacy of their home or place of residence.

The company's 30,000 employees deliver home health, hospice, home and community based services, and facility-based care in 35 states and the District of Columbia reaching 60% of the US population aged 65 and older.

Through Imperium Health, the company's ACO management and enablement company, LHC Group helps partners improve both savings and patient outcomes with a value-based approach.
