PRIORITIES AND TRENDS FOR THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE: A TWO-PART GOVERNING HEALTH PODCAST FEATURE

April 2022

The board's executive compensation committee has traditionally been one of the most prominent of all board functions, with its focus on such interconnected responsibilities as oversight of the executive compensation process, compensation data analysis, talent recruitment and executive search. This two-part discussion is filled with valuable insights and the latest developments affecting compensation committees from two recognized health industry compensation and benefits experts, Tim Cotter and Ralph DeJong, moderated by Governing Health podcast host Michael Peregrine.
